

Silver and Plate / Wed, 19th February 2020 / Lot 425

LOT 425

A George III silver cream jug of ogee baluster form, engraved with foliage framing vacant cartouches, London 1772, maker's mark rubbed, height 12.5cm, together with a small group of other silver and plated items.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

425. The bag is a bit worn. Leather with all-over scuffs and wear, some unstitching to side panel and some wear and tears to hing front flap around clasp. Main clasp at top is in working order.

Created: Thu, 13th February 2020 16:21