LOT 1148

A collection of Chinese snuff bottle stoppers, mostly late Qing dynasty, including jade, agate, rock crystal and coral examples (approximately ninety-eight in total), some fitted with bone or ivory spoons and some loose spoons (some faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1148. Generally most of the stoppers are in good condition but there are some condition issues. Few have significant chips, some have minor chips and typical wear. Some are detached from spoons, some are attached. Hopefully the extra images will give you an overall view of the lot.
