LOT 1026

A Chinese famille verte porcelain triple-gourd shaped vase, Kangxi style but late Qing dynasty, painted with panels of birds in blossoming branches and Buddhist lions in garden settings, reserved against green grounds filled with lotus tendrils and precious objects, underglaze blue double-ring and green enamelled leaf mark to base, height 34.2cm (repaired neck).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1026. The neck rim has been broken away in six large pieces and visibly glued back, with some minor losses along the break lines and some minor associated chipping to the neck rim edge. Some minor dark speckled spotted 'kiln dirt' to lower bulb, a minor manufacturing issue. Otherwise ok.
