LOT 1125

A rare Chinese famille verte porcelain brick form pillow, Kangxi period, one side painted with three sages and six attendant boys, the reverse with a lotus pond with kingfisher perched above lotus, one end with pierced apertures, 21.7cm x 32.3cm x 6.4cm (minor frittling and chips). Note: bricks/tiles of this size are often intended for furniture. This piece lacks sufficient holes for mounting and unlike double-sided screens, the opposing painting is upside down unless turned through 180 degrees.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

1125. Typical varying degrees of frittling to facet edges and a few chips. Largest approx 1cm square above figural side. Overall typical light surface wear. Each side of the pillow has surface scratches to varying degrees. No cracks or restoration.
