LOT 1106

A pair of Chinese Canton export porcelain circular dishes, early 20th century, each painted with butterflies against large overlapping green leaves beneath a fruit and foliate filled rim, iron red printed marks to bases, diameter 34.3cm, together with a Japanese Imari circular dish, diameter 30cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

1106. Both famille rose dishes are in generally good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. The enamels are good and vibrant but both dishes have wear/loss to enamels where they have been stacked and a footrim has caused the wear.

Imari dish in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical wear to decoration.
