LOT 1108

A Chinese red painted carved wood washstand, early 20th century, the back with carved dragon head surmounts above a panelled back, carved in low relief with a figure and Buddhist lion, the folding base supporting a blue and white porcelain wash bowl, total height 167cm (some faults).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1108. Blue and white bowl is chipped and cracked, otherwise ok. Stand has typical wear and knocks. Also some chips to dragon surmounts. Some shrinkage splits to supports and wear to red decoration. Otherwise in fairly sound condition.
