

Antiquarian and Collectors' Books / Tuesday, 17th March 2020 / Lot 3023

LOT 3023

PULLMAN, Philip. His Dark Materials. London: Scholastic Press, 1995-2000. First editions, first impressions, 8vo (213 x 128mm.) (Toning to margins, one or two marks to fore-edge of 'The Amber Spyglass'.)

Original maroon, black and green cloth, silver gilt knife to upper cover of 'The Subtle Knife', dust-jackets. Note: comprises 'Northern Lights', 'The Subtle Knife' and 'The Amber Spyglass'. 'Northern Lights' in a first issue dustjacket with 'Point' on the spine and the 7-9 Pratt Street address on the inner flap. - And a further set of Pullman's 'His Dark Materials' trilogy ('Northern Lights', 3rd impression, 'The Subtle Knife', 5th impression, 'The Amber Spyglass', 1st impression, 8vo) (6).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

3023. Dust-jackets all unclipped and in very fine condition, no rubbing at all. Very faint suggestion of spine ends being pushed. As per the catalogue description, toning internally with a few marks to fore-edge of 'Amber Spyglass'.

Created: Mon, 9th March 2020 14:52