

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1454

LOT 1454

A pair of Royal Doulton Sung Flambé vases, 1920s, decorated by Noke and Allen, the flattened high shouldered bodies with gilt fish amidst weeds, black printed, painted and impressed marks to bases, height 15cm (minor chip and hairline to one neck).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1454. Both have some minor and typical light surface scratches.

First - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Gilding good with no real wear. A couple of tiny manufacturing blemishes to footrim as a result of the glaze pooling during manufacture.

Second - approx 1 by 0.5cm flat chip to interior edge of neck rim with associated 2cm vertical haircrack running height of neck. Otherwise in good condition, no real wear to gilding.
