

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1402

LOT 1402

A Worcester porcelain blue printed teapot and cover, circa 1780, in the Fisherman and Cormorant pattern, underglaze blue disguised numeral mark to base, height 11cm, together with a Fisherman pattern Caughley blue printed asparagus server, length 7.2cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1402. Teapot - a few tiny nicks to inner flange where cover sits, not noticeable when cover in place, otherwise in good condition. No restoration.

Asparagus server - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Mon, 9th March 2020 15:15