

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1414

LOT 1414

Fourteen assorted Dutch Delft tiles, 18th century, of square shape, each painted in blue with subjects including a well, birds, buildings and an equestrian figure, each approx 12.5cm square (faults).

Estimate: £180 - £220

Condition Report

1414. 3 of the tiles have been noticeably broken into 2 or 3 large pieces and visibly glued.

6 of the tiles are missing corners to varying degrees.

The 5 remaining tiles are fundamentally intact but have typical fritted chips and losses to the edges - as do all the other tiles.

Created: Mon, 9th March 2020 15:17