LOT 2625

A Victorian copper preserve pan, diameter 43cm, together with a smaller preserve pan and two cylindrical copper cooking pots, diameters 36cm and 25cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2625. Larger preserve pan - in generally good order with overall patinated surface and some surface scratches. It has quite a flat base and applied handles which appear to be copper. Probably late 19th century in date.

Smaller pan - quite a dented domed base. Handles appear to be made of an alloy. Probably early 20th century in date.
