

20th Century Design / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4182

LOT 4182

A mid-20th century twill scarf, designed by Henry Moore, circa 1944, and made by Ascher, printed with three standing figures within a lattice designed border, bearing signature and maker's label, 89cm x 85cm, together with a Pallant House Gallery 'Henry Moore Textiles' exhibition brochure.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

4182. Generally in good condition, but with a few small splashes of surface dirt that appears to be a bit of food. It does not appear to have stained and should clean off ok.

Created: Tue, 10th March 2020 15:09