

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4097

LOT 4097

A Liberty & Co 'Cymric' silver and enameled caddy spoon, designed by Archibald Knox, commemorating the coronation of George V, model number '354', the bowl detailed 'A C GRV' flanking a crown, with red/yellow enamelled decoration, Birmingham 1910, length 12.2cm.

Note: this spoon was initially designed by Archibald Knox to commemorate the coronation of Edward VII and an example is illustrated in 'Archibald Knox' by Stephen Martin, page 212.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

4097. Some overall light surface scratches to silver and enamel, with general light wear. There is some very slight loss of enamel at the top of the crown. Also a few surface dents to handle.

Created: Tue, 10th March 2020 15:12