

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1555

LOT 1555

A Royal Crown Derby two-handled vase and cover, circa 1942, painted by C. Gresley, signed, with floral sprays framed by gilt foliate borders against a cobalt blue and gilt decorated ground, printed mark to base, height 37cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1555. Cover - very faint and indistinct hairline, approx 1cm, long to flange of cover, otherwise cover in good order with typical light rubbing to gilding.

Vase - in good condition overall, no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light rubbing to gilt extremities.

Created: Thu, 12th March 2020 15:45