

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1437

LOT 1437

A garniture of three Spode vases and a cover, circa 1817-19, of flared trumpet shape with integral domed bases raised on gilded tripod paw feet, each painted with a botanical panel, edged with gilt detail, against a cobalt blue ground densely gilt with foliage, the central vase with pierced cover, iron red painted marks to bases with pattern No. '2575', height 28cm and 16cm. Provenance: R. David Butti Collection.

Estimate: £2,500 - £3,500

Condition Report

1437. Vase and cover - tiny nick to one white bead on lowest band, some rubbing to gilding primarily in one spot on edge of base, otherwise in good condition overall with nice bright enamels and gilding. No restoration. Pair vases - both in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Both with good bright enamels and gilding.

Created: Thu, 12th March 2020 15:47