

Glassware / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1606

LOT 1606

A Bohemian clear glass oil lamp base and reservoir, circa 1900, engraved with a bird amongst fruiting branches, height 34cm (lacking fittings), together with a large clear glass campana shaped vase, height 26.4cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1606. Oil lamp - base with approx 0.5cm square flat chip to rim edge and a few minute nicks to inner rim edge circumference. Three indistinct bruises/chips amidst engraved decoration to facet edges. Reservoir has two nibbled chips to rim edge. Metal colour of reservoir has verdigris and is filled with a rolled section of cork tile. Vase - small flat chip to base rim edge of foot. A few very indistinct nicks to edge of overturned rim, more easily felt than seen.

Created: Fri, 13th March 2020 15:58