

Fine British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1436

LOT 1436

A Coalport ornamental jardinière and stand, circa 1800-05, sepia painted with a classical lady seated beside a lamb against a brown ground framed by keyfret borders, flanked by stylized dolphin head handles, the stand raised on paw feet, overall heightened in gilt, unmarked, total height 16.8cm (small chips to rim).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1436. Generally in good condition. Small nick to underside rim edge of base and smaller nick to top rim edge exterior. 3 chips and small nick to interior top rim edge of jardinière. Gilding overall with spots of flaking and wear, particularly on extremities. Typical scratching through normal usage to interior.

Created: Mon, 16th March 2020 11:15