

Arts and Crafts Furniture / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4017

LOT 4017

A set of six early 20th century Arts and Crafts oak and ash framed panel back dining chairs by William Birch, the shaped panel backs above rush and some woven string seats, on ring turned legs, height 99cm, width 43cm (some faults to seat panels).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

4017. Two of the chairs have rush seats, but both of these have damage and loss. The other four have woven string seats that are all a little loose. One of the chairs has a repaired broken upright at top. All the chairs are reasonably sturdy, two have a very slight wobble of joints. There are some areas of uneven polish and some splashed water stains, but otherwise ok.

Created: Mon, 16th March 2020 14:28