LOT 565

An aquamarine and diamond curved rectangular cluster ring, collet set with a curved rectangular aquamarine within a surround of circular cut diamonds, ring size approx N1/2, with a case.

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

565. An attractive ring in good condition. Stones are bright and sparkly. This is a modern ring so condition is essentially as new with only minor surface scratches and wear. The head of the ring is approx 1.9cm x 1.5cm. The aquamarine has very minor surface abrasions and a couple of tiny chips to facet edges, but only noticeable under magnification.
