

LOT 2548

Phyllis Dawson - a group of twelve finely engraved woodcut printing blocks, one depicting a large collection of dolls and automata, 16.4cm x 12.6cm, a fantastical capriccio exterior view of classical architecture, 18cm x 14.5cm, a Venetian scene and others. Note: Phyllis Dawson (1903-1993) was an illustrator and wood engraver. Born in London, she went on to study at Clapham School of Art with William Washington, then at Canterbury School of Art under John Austen. Many of her woodcuts depict her garden in Barham or the interior of the antique shop where she lived in Palace Street, Canterbury, as well as the local environs.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

2548. Two of the large blocks have slight gapping to the joints, but otherwise in ok used condition.

Created: Mon, 16th March 2020 14:59