LOT 2603

A pair of 18th/early 19th century fruitwood and leather pipe smoker's bellows with tapering brass tip, length 25cm, together with a cased miniature model of a violin.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

2603. The brass tip has some minor dents and is very slightly wobbly. There is a small section of brass trim missing to edge. There are some slight breaks and light wear to the woven leather section and some light surface cracks to the bellows, but generally quite presentable and in working order.
