LOT 4012

A set of four Edwardian Arts and Crafts oak framed and ash backed dining chairs, designed by W.J. Neatby and probably made by William Birch, each arched panel back carved with a stylized tree above a drop-in needlework seat, on tapering block legs, height 100cm, width 45cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

4012. General condition is good, structurally solid and cleanly polished. There is some minor wear and slightly splintered to the corners of some of the legs but otherwise ok.
