

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Friday, 20th March 2020 / Lot 4093

LOT 4093

A small group of Liberty & Co 'Tudric' pewter items, comprising a tankard, designed by Oliver Baker, model number '066', a twin-handled dish, model number '0287', a pair of bowls and a pair of napkin rings, together with an Orivit castor and a W.H. Haselar Ltd 'Cosy' pot.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

4093. The Oliver Baker tankard has a misshapen rim as well as some minor dents to body and footrim. The pierced dish is quite badly scratched to the interior. The other pieces just have some other minor dents and scratches.

Created: Tue, 17th March 2020 15:50