

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1518

LOT 1518

A Samuel Alcock & Co earthenware lidded pot, first half 19th century, black printed with continuous garlands of blossoming branches and inscribed 'S. Alcock & Co for W. Chubb Patentee', flanked by a branch handle to one side and a scroll handle to the other, length 41cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1518. Lid - two hairline cracks to rim, firing crack to join of handle.

Pot - hairline to rim. Near the base on one side there are firing cracks to the body and to the branch handle.

Some staining to interior and base.

Fine overall crazing to pot and lid.

Created: Wed, 18th March 2020 11:38