

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 19th March 2020 / Lot 1491

LOT 1491

A Wedgwood octagonal pottery bowl, early 20th century, the exterior gilt with dragons against a powder blue ground, panels of flowers and precious objects to the rim interior, above a base medallion, brown printed mark to base with Z4788 pattern number, diameter 26.5cm (haircrack).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1491. Approx 0.5cm square flat chip to exterior edge of footrim. Some fine crazing to glaze. Fine haircrack visible to base interior running around approx 1/3 of base interior medallion. Gilding and enamels in good order.

Created: Thu, 19th March 2020 09:33