LOT 1099

A Japanese Satsuma earthenware, koro and cover by Kinkozan, Meiji period, the compressed circular body painted and gilt with a continuous shoreside scene of bijin and children beneath a reticulated shoulder and cylindrical neck, flanked by a pair of gilt buddhistic lion mask handles, on short tripod feet, the domed cover with reticulated panels and simulated brocade ground, iron red and gilt signature seal to base, height 12.5cm (section of cover missing and wear to gilt).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1099. There is a 2cm hairline crack to rim, otherwise the body is in generally good condition, but with wear to gilt particularly on rim and mask handles. Typical light crazing, otherwise enamels and gilt are good and vibrant. The cover is missing a 2.5cm section of rim and a 3.5 by 0.5cm section of reticulated panel. Minor wear to gilding of cover.
