LOT 1103

A Japanese Satsuma earthenware bowl, attributed to Meizan, Meiji period, of steep sided circular form, the interior finely painted and gilt with a figural scene beneath a simulated brocade panel to rim, the exterior with four figural panels, reserved against simulated brocade borders, unmarked, height 7.2cm, diameter 12.9cm (restoration).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1103. The bowl appears to have been broken/cracked in two and professionally restored with some minor retouching - under magnification you can see some signs of the crack, there is also another hairline crack which runs from the footrim vertically approx 4cm. Otherwise the enamels and gilding are bright and vibrant.
