LOT 1144

A Chinese brown patinated bronze jostick holder, probably Ming dynasty, modelled as a pair of Buddhist lions, each standing on their hind legs, grasping a brocade ball between them, the ball surmounted with a branch, height 18cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

1144. The dogs are in generally good condition with typical wear to high points, the central stem probably repaired as some glue residue, possibly not original branch surmount.
