LOT 2150

A George I red walnut tripod wine table, the slightly dished circular top with a moulded edge, the ring turned stem with a wide baluster knob above three tapering cabriole legs terminating in pointed pad feet, height 57.5cm, diameter 39cm (chipped edge to top turning of stem).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2150. There is a very thin hairline crack through the top, a chipped area to the top of the screw-on stem, and a thin hairline running vertically through the turned section of stem below the baluster. No repairs or breaks to legs or feet, but just some overall minor scuffs and marks to the surface. One screw missing to the circular plate underneath top.
