LOT 2135

A late Victorian rosewood cased boudoir grand piano by Collard & Collard, London, raised on octagonal tapering legs and castors, width 144cm, length 203cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2135. The general condition of the case is ok, but with some surface staining to the veneer on its longest side. Some overall minor scuffs and marks. Musically it would need a lot of work and complete overall. Being a Victorian piano and not having been kept in a playable condition, it sounds badly out of tune and with some non-functioning keys.
