LOT 2809

A pair of Victorian woolwork samplers, initialled 'W.B, aged 11 years', one dated 1867, both worked with a central cottage surrounded by flowers, plants, birds, stars and crowns, 30cm x 32cm, both within maple frames.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2809. The fabric ground has an overall browning with some areas slightly more browned than other areas. There is some very minor spotting and a small area of loss of wool to central basket, but otherwise the wool seems to be in good order. Some chips to wooden slip surround and minor scuffs to frames.
