LOT 2554

An Edwardian oak and nickel plate mounted three-bottle tantalus, fitted with three cut glass decanters and stoppers, width 44cm (locked with no key).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2554. As mentioned in the description, the tantalus is locked without a key, so the decanters can only be inspected within the tantalus. The central bottle has a sizeable chip to the neck and there are a few small nicks to corners and edges of all three.
