

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 14th July 2020 / Lot 370

LOT 370

A set of six George IV silver Fiddle pattern teaspoons, London 1825 by James Payne, length 14.3cm, together with a mixed group of assorted mostly Georgian and Victorian silver flatware, various patterns, makers and dates, and a set of nine plated table forks.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,600

Condition Report

370. Generally fairly good condition with typical wear and surface scratches. Weight 3464.5g.

Created: Wed, 8th July 2020 15:08