

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 14th July 2020 / Lot 390

LOT 390

An early 19th century Scottish horn and silver mounted snuff mull, the hinged lid with engraved silver thistle motif and applied cut-cornered plaque, length 9cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

390. Few chips to rim of cover. Silver mounts in good order. Couple of shrinkage cracks to body of horn, but overall horn in generally good condition.

Created: Thu, 9th July 2020 15:38