

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 15th July 2020 / Lot 1801

LOT 1801

A George VI naval officer's sword with straight single-edged blade, blade length 79cm, gilt brass hilt with lion's head pommel and folding guard, wire-bound fishskin grip and bullion dress knot, with gilt brass-mounted leather scabbard and all-weather case (distressed).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1801. All weather guard coming loose at seams and overall wear. Sword has been restored at some point, mounts and leather work on scabbard and hilt very fresh looking. Blade has been heavily pitted in past and now polished out. Dress knot has some areas of wear.

Created: Thu, 9th July 2020 15:47