

Silver and Plate / Tuesday, 14th July 2020 / Lot 304

LOT 304

A George III silver cylindrical mustard with Gothic style pierced sides and scroll handle, fitted with a blue glass liner, London 1772 by William Skeen, height 6.5cm, together with a matched Victorian silver pepper and two salt spoons.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

304. Mustard - in good condition overall, nice hallmarks, monogram engraved. Foot slightly misshapen, barely noticeable. Glass liner ok.

Pepper - in good condition overall, monogram engraved, glass liner good. Hallmarks rubbed but readable.

Two salt spoons - ok.

Created: Mon, 13th July 2020 15:43