

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 15th July 2020 / Lot 1802

LOT 1802

A 19th century Continental infantry briquet sword with curved single-edged blade, blade length 59.5cm, and brass hilt, with brass-mounted leather scabbard.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1802. Wear and overall small surface marks and knocks to hilt. The blade is clean but has some surface pitting to last 15cm, as well as very slight loss to tip. Scabbard has overall light surface wear.

Created: Mon, 13th July 2020 15:49