

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 15th July 2020 / Lot 1820

LOT 1820

A late 19th century folding pocket knife with single-edged blade, blade length 12cm, detailed 'John Sellers, manufacturer, Sheffield', nickel fittings and staghorn grip, inset with a plaque inscribed 'D. Pain the gift of Revd. W. Erle'.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1820. The blade is quite worn and pitted to the surface and rather worn to the edge of the blade. The blade lock is functioning and there is light wear to the handle.

Created: Mon, 13th July 2020 15:56