LOT 2611

A 19th century German porcelain and wooden mounted smoking pipe, the bowl in the form of a lady's head, length 36cm, together with a 19th century carved meerschaum and amber pipe, cased (faults), another pipe and a cheroot holder, cased.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

2611. The porcelain lady's head is quite dirty and has some overall light surface wear. There is a surface graze to her nose with slight loss to the porcelain. It appears that the bow on her neck tie has chipped off ends. Both the joins at the top of the head and the pipe fitting appear to be ok.
