

Glassware / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1627

LOT 1627

Two Nailsea type glass flasks, 19th century, each flattened body of dark olive green tint with overall white enamelled flecks, lengths 20cm and 20.8cm, together with a similar brown glass flask with white swirled decoration, length 11.3cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1627. Larger green flask - minute chip to top rim edge and surface chip to protruding white fleck near base. Light typical surface wear.

Smaller green flask - extensive patches of surface wear/scratches. Cork fixed into neck and not removable, otherwise ok.

Brown flask - typical surface wear/scratches, otherwise ok.

Created: Tue, 11th August 2020 16:26