

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1515

LOT 1515

A rare Thames Tunnel commemorative stoneware flask or inkwell, circa 1843, of rectangular shape, relief decorated with a depiction of Marc Isambard Brunel's tunnelling shield to one side, opposing simple incised scrollwork, the top with a pair of foliate scrolls flanking a central aperture with two smaller apertures, unmarked, length 8cm, height 7.4cm, width 3.3cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £500 - £800

---

Condition Report

1515. Flat 2cm by 1cm chip to left side of flask, otherwise no cracks, chips or restoration. There are a number of typical manufacturing blemishes, eg. glaze faults and firing cracks which can be seen by using the zoom function to view the 7 images on our website.

Created: Mon, 10th August 2020 17:08