

Glassware / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1638

LOT 1638

A Bohemian white overlay cut and enamelled glass vase, late 19th/early 20th century, the flared body cut with facets enamelled and gilt with birds, flowers and insects, above a waisted stem, height 13.3cm, together with a blue and white overlay cased cut vase, height 11.5cm, and two pieces of ruby flashed glass (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1638. White vase - 4 indistinct flat chips to underside edge of foot, otherwise in good condition with typical wear to gilding and enamels.

Blue and white - possibly larger vase cut down as slightly odd shape? Light surface scratches, otherwise ok.

Ruby footed bowl - 1cm square chip to exterior rim edge with other insignificant nicks to rim edge, otherwise ok.

Ruby diminutive vase - chip and four nicks to upper rim edge.

Created: Tue, 11th August 2020 09:09