LOT 1545

A Burmantofts Faience jardinière stand, late 19th century, of column shape, relief decorated with a repeating stylized flowerhead pattern beneath a dark olive green glaze, shape No. 622, impressed marks, height 72cm, together with a majolica umbrella stand, relief decorated with dragons, unmarked, height 48.5cm (extensive repairs and damage to umbrella stand).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1545. Burmantofts - fundamentally in good condition overall with no cracks or restoration. There is a minor chip to the inner footrim edge only noticeable when the stand is upturned and a minor 0.5cm square glaze chip to the top rim edge. Otherwise the top surface is typically scratched/worn and there are similar typical scratches/wear to the outer edge of the foot.

Umbrella stand - extensively and visibly damaged and repaired.
