

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1566

LOT 1566

A Continental porcelain rectangular snuff box, probably Meissen, late 18th/early 19th century, gilt metal mounted and painted to the exterior with scattered insects and flowers, the underside of the lid painted in purpurmalerei with a landscape view of a shepherd and shepherdess, 7cm x 4cm x 5cm (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

1566. Approx one quarter section of box broken away in one section and visibly repaired, some minor losses along the break line, the gilt metal mounts have therefore been restuck into position. Minor and indistinct chip to inner front rim edge of box and lower inner rim edge of lid. Otherwise the exterior is particularly scratched and worn. Glazed over manufacturers chip to upper right corner of lid where green butterfly wing is.

Created: Wed, 12th August 2020 12:38