LOT 1496

A pair of Derby porcelain figures, late 18th century, modelled as a girl with a lamb and a boy holding a letter, each before a bocage, height 14cm (some faults and restoration).

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

1496. Male - front of right foot professionally restored, chips to letter held in hand, typical losses to bocage. Restored through neck, chip to hat brim.

Female - noticeable losses to bocage. Hat brim poorly and noticeably restored, green enamel on bocage thickly applied and pitted during firing.
