

Glassware / Thursday, 13th August 2020 / Lot 1640

LOT 1640

Five Stevens & Williams glass goblets with lamp blown decoration, 1930s, attributed to William Swingewood, each cup shaped bowl above a globular hollow stem, internally decorated with a lampwork dog, parrot, male golfer, female diver and a couple representing Adam and Eve, unmarked, height 17.5cm (parrot example with small chip to foot).

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

1640. Parrot example with sizeable chip to foot, otherwise all in good condition with typical minor surface scratches to bowls. The lampwork is all in good condition.

Created: Wed, 12th August 2020 16:16