

Jewellery / Wed, 19th August 2020 / Lot 600

LOT 600

A platinum and diamond ring, circa 1925, collet set with the principal old cut cushion shaped diamond within a surround of smaller cushion shaped diamonds in an Art Deco design, between foliate engraved shoulders, unmarked, ring size approx N, principal diamond weight approx 3.5ct.

Estimate: £10,000 - £12,000

Condition Report

600. There is slight wear to the ring mount. Wear to the decoration on the shoulders. The shank is a little thin. Scratched pawnbrokers marks within the shank, no apparent marks to the mount. Principal old cut diamond  Clarity approx. VS, Colour approx M/N. Weight 5.4g.

Created: Thu, 13th August 2020 09:54