

Silver and Plate / Wed, 19th August 2020 / Lot 320

LOT 320

An Elizabeth II silver egg shaped box and cover, engraved with various birds, each titled 'Swallow', 'Kingfisher', 'Hoopoe', 'Tawny Owl', 'Nightjar', 'Red-Breasted Merganser' and 'Great-Spotted Woodpecker', London 1988 by William A. Phipps, inscribed 'William Phipps Fecit' and 'Denis McQuoid Engraved It' to base, height 14.3cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

320. Good clean condition, no significant damage or repairs. No dents or significant wear. Some very minor typical surface scratches visible under magnification, but of no real consequence. No additional inscriptions etc. Diameter of lower section 10cm. Weight 491.6g.

Created: Thu, 13th August 2020 11:21