

Jewellery / Wed, 19th August 2020 / Lot 513

LOT 513

A Victorian blue enameled circular pendant locket, the front with floral decoration on a cross-hatched ground, length 3cm.

Estimate: £60 - £90

Condition Report

513. The enamel is in generally good order, but does have surface abrasions and wear visible under magnification, one small section of enamel to the left edge has a crack but otherwise no other significant damage or losses. The hinged back door has typical surface wear to engine turning, but otherwise in good order and hinge is good. The sides are a little worn and a couple of small holes have worn through. Length including loop 3cm, diameter 2cm. Weight 3.6g.

Created: Mon, 17th August 2020 15:38