

Jewellery / Wed, 19th August 2020 / Lot 539

LOT 539

A Victorian gold backed and silver fronted diamond set pendant brooch in a spiral shaped circular design, mounted with a cushion cut diamond to the centre and otherwise set with rose cut diamonds, with a rose cut diamond set suspension, length 3.5cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

---

Condition Report

539. The pendant is in generally good condition. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Typical light surface abrasions to stones, no evidence of re-sizing, significant damage or repairs. Centre stone approx 0.35-0.40ct. The total carat weight has not been calculated. Diamonds are a little steely in colour with some inclusion visible under x10 magnification. Diameter is 2.6cm.

Created: Mon, 17th August 2020 17:07